

with him. The question is whether you want to build up forcefully his prestige. Do not consider me by writing this letter Sz.A. who just arrived here, but the man who was a staff man and does not think and act in other than US terms. B. is nothing for me and E. is nothing for me, so is Sz.M. I was never associated with them, not even before 1938. I did not direct H. foreign policy. And I do not want to play politics with anybody. Reid, I know what I say. Let the B. do it, and mabe somebody else, but not Sz.M.
I'll tell orally more.
